Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard: Transfer of Listing

Additional Disclosures Requested by the NYSE Regarding the Berry Petroleum Company Chairman of the Board's Role in Presiding Over Executive Sessions of its Board of Directors

The Commentary to Section 303A.03 of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) Listed Company Manual requires each listed company to disclose in its proxy statement the name of the director chosen to preside at executive sessions of non-management directors or the procedure by which a presiding director is selected for each executive session. Berry Petroleum Company's corporate governance principles state that the Chairman of the Board presides at all executive sessions of the non-management directors and that the non-management directors will meet in executive session at all regularly scheduled meetings of the Board of Directors. In its 2006 proxy statement Berry Petroleum Company (Berry) disclosed that its Chairman of the Board is responsible for running all meetings of the Board of Directors. The proxy statement also included references to Berry's corporate governance principles and the fact they are available at Berry's webpage, www.bry.com.

On July 25, 2006 the NYSE notified Berry that it was considered deficient in meeting the above requirement and provided until August 1, 2006 to cure the deficiency. While Berry believes that its disclosures were sufficient and in any event that any deemed failure is not material, Berry sets forth the information below and in future years, it will include this disclosure in its proxy statement.

The Chairman of the Board, Mr. Martin H. Young, Jr., is designated to preside at all executive sessions of the non-management directors.
